Starbridge's Education Conferences are designed to bring national expertise to area educators and administrators in topics of relevance to classrooms today. From Executive Function to Restorative Practices to Dyslexia, our conferences support you to improve practices and make classrooms more inclusive and successful for everyone!

Katie Novak, Ed.D., is an internationally renowned education consultant, author, graduate instructor at the University of Pennsylvania, and a former Assistant Superintendent of Schools in Massachusetts. With 19 years of experience in teaching and administration, an earned doctorate in curriculum and teaching, and nine published books, Katie designs and presents workshops on the implementation of inclusive practices, Universal Design for Learning (UDL), multi-tiered systems of support, and universally designed leadership.

Lisa Bosio has been a passionate educator for over 20 years with one goal: to equip and empower teachers to invest in and impact the whole child, academically, behaviorally, socially, and emotionally. Lisa has extensive experience as a classroom teacher, master teacher, and district instructional coach. She has been a Consulting Partner with two universities and designs coursework focused on the implementation of UDL and social emotional learning.

TWO HALF-DAY SESSIONS TO SUPPORT YOU AND ALL YOUR LEARNERS

“One-Size-Fits-All” Fits No One ~ December 2nd ~ 12:30-3:30pm

Presenter Katie Novak, Ed.D.

Founder and Executive Director of Novak Educational Consulting

Research is clear that it's not students who don't fit our schools. It's our systems that don't fit students. Inclusive practices challenge education systems of the past by embracing student variability and diversity and eliminating barriers to learning. Join us to explore Universal Design for Learning (UDL), a framework for inclusive education that empowers all students to become expert learners who are purposeful & motivated, resourceful & knowledgeable, and strategic & goal-directed, regardless of their variability.

Meeting the Needs of the Whole Child ~ December 9th ~ 12:30-3:30pm

Presenter Lisa Bosio

Educational Consultant, Novak Educational Consulting

Being "book-smart" or good at test-taking are rarely the best markers of success. Our students must learn to collaborate, communicate, problem solve and think critically in order to thrive in the workplace as adults. Learners who are able to identify and regulate their emotions, whether working independently or with peers, can tap into parts of their brain that may otherwise be shut off to learning. This is particularly important for our learners who have been historically marginalized. In a nutshell, all learning is social and emotional. Join us to explore how to create an equitable learning environment that fosters social, emotional, behavioral, and academic growth using both UDL and social emotional learning (SEL) in your learning environment.
