

TWO PART EDUCATION CONFERENCE

SUPPORTING IEP LEARNING DURING COVID

Whether students are learning at school, home, or a hybrid option, we want to help them continue to learn. For students who have IEPs, there are ways to translate those into supportive plans that can be used in any setting.

Starbridge is pleased to host Shelley Moore, inclusion expert and international speaker, for two interactive online sessions!

December 10, 2020 — Focus on Elementary School Plans

Hosted on Zoom from 3:00-5:00pm EST

January 16, 2021— Focus on Middle and High School Plans

Hosted on Zoom from 3:00-5:00pm EST

You will need internet access and a computer or a smartphone to participate via Zoom. We recommend joining the conference ten minutes early to ensure your connection works.

Registration Fees:

- Educators or other professionals: $25/session
 - Parent or family member of student with disability or suspected disability: Free
- Starbridge is able to provide these sessions at no charge to people with disabilities and their family members, thanks to the support of grants from local, regional, and national funders.

REGISTRATION REQUIRED. Zoom link will be sent in confirmation email. Reserve your spot at www.starbridgeinc.org/events or by phone at 585-224-7248.

If you would like to participate but have a conflict, please register and we can provide a link to the recording for a limited time after the event.

About Shelley Moore:

Based in Vancouver, British Columbia, Shelley Moore is a highly sought after teacher, researcher, speaker and storyteller. She has worked with school districts and community organizations throughout Canada and the United States. Her first book, One Without the Other, was released in July 2016 to follow up her TEDx talk from January 2016.
